FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Deborah Stewart Voted Chair of Greyston Board of Directors

September, 2013. Yonkers, N.Y. - Greyston is pleased to announce that Deborah Stewart has been elected as Chairman of the Board of Directors. Ms. Stewart has served on the Board for 6 years and as Chair of the Greyston Family Inn for 4 years. She brings a wealth of experience to his new responsibilities as board chair. "I am excited to take the helm of this extraordinary organization as we move forward. The next year will mark a watershed moment in our history as we adapt to the changing needs of the community that we serve and continue our long and successful tradition of providing the needed resources and training to individuals and their families on their paths to self-sufficiency. Westchester needs Greyston more than ever, and we're here to serve," said Ms. Stewart

"We are thrilled that Deborah has assumed the leadership of Greyston. This organization has a long and esteemed history of creating jobs and opportunities for society's most underserved and Deborah's experience and knowledge will go a long way to continuing that tradition," said Steven Brown, Greyston's President and Chief Executive Officer.

Deborah Stewart has dedicated her life to social and public service through her work with non-profit organizations. She served on the board of New York City's Learning Leaders while providing college planning and counseling services to public school students in South Bronx and East Harlem. In addition, Ms. Stewart channeled her passion for sports and community through coordination of youth baseball leagues. She served as the Assistant Commissioner for Intergovernmental Relations at the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development. She holds an MA in Public Policy from the University of Pennsylvania.
